Health and Beauty

The "natural look," has, at last, come into its own. Even Hollywood, the home of extreme make-up and hair coloring, is singing its praises. Heavy, pancake-type powder, pencil slim eyebrows and the heavily-rouged mouth, are things of the past.

Men have long been drawn to natural beauty and it is a mystery that it has taken women so long to catch on.

By "natural looking," don't think for a minute you should throw away your powder, rouge, mascara, etc. However, use them sparingly and artistically.

Play up the good features and play-down bad ones.

With all this emphasis on naturalness, it is more important than ever before to make sure you have the good health necessary for bright eyes and hair, a clear alive-looking skin and a ready smile.

These things cannot come out of a cosmetic jar. Nothing will do for you what eight hours sleep each night will. A well - balanced sensible diet, coupled with enough exercise, is the very basis of good looks.

A lovely figure is also a sign of good health. well - adjusted posture are confined to all you should take regular exercise. A bike the block or jaunt your home will be a Remember that old still true, for lovely skin deep.

...AROUND APPOMATTOX THANKSGIVING DAY

Dozens of local folks were up earlier than usual this morning —headed for the big holiday football games. Roanoke drew the largest contingent, headed for the Virginia military classic: V. P. I. vs V. M. I.

The nimrods were up even earlier, however, and were taking to the fields and woods for a day of hunting.

Billy Conner was on duty down at the post office to put up morning mail. He will get The Times-Virginian in mail boxes shortly after lunch. He was equipped with a radio to pick up the football games.

"Uncle Charlie" Fitch was down on Main Street at 7:00 A. M., with a dog and gun, ready to go hunting! We told him the "hunting was not going to be so good today on Main Street." He replied that he was just waiting for his partner, and they were going out for rabbits or squirrels, or whatsoever they might find in the way of game.

Appomattox's two big factories decided to work today and take off Friday if Smart. They were "going for" the long week-end!

Well, sir, at 9 A. M. today, young Carroll Goodrich, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Goodrich, rode through town in his pony cart, and the very handsome 3-year-old pony in full gear. Leslie was along, and your reporter stopped to give a word of approval to this project, The pony is part Shetland, and was purchased from brother Z. E. Cheatham, Evergreen horseman. We came upon young Carroll and his pony at the drug store corner.

Demonstration Club Schedule

Schedule of meetings of the home demonstration clubs for next week:
Monday, Nov. 30: Liberty Chapel Club will meet at 7:30 P. M., with Mrs. Preston Coleman.
Tuesday, Dec. 1: Lee Club will meet at 2 P. M. with Mrs. Gladys Woodson.
Thursday, Dec. 3: Leader Training Meeting for months of January and February. The meeting will be held at the home demonstration office and will begin at 10 A. M. Mr .Dean Martin, Lynchburg Dress Designer, and Miss Betty McClaskey, VPI Clothing Specialist, are assisting with the meeting.
Thursday, Dec. 3: Rocks Club will meet at 7:30 P. M. with Mrs. Kate Dinkins and Miss Gertrude Eanson as co-hostesses.
Friday, Dec. 4: Oakville Club will hold annual Christmas meeting at 7:30 P. M. at the Oakville School. Co-hostesses for this meeting are Mrs. Wesley Coleman, Mrs. Berkley Cabaniss, Mrs. Wiley Moore, and Mrs .Hubert Wilkerson.
Saturday, Dec. 5: Glendale Club will hold annual family Christmas dinner and recreational meeting at Sherwell Community Center, at 6:30 P. M. All members and their families are expected to attend.

REPORT MADE ON THE SALE OF CHRISTMAS SEALS

On behalf of the Southside Tuberculosis Association, we would like to take this opportunity to express our deep appreciation to the people of the Southside area for their loyal support of our campaign through their generous contributions.
Through Monday, Nov. 20, the Southside TB Association has received a total contribution of $2,966.20. In the County of Appomattox, the contributions were $201.00. These contributions put the Association ahead of collections from last year by a few hundred dollars, but, of course, much more is needed for the fight against TB is not over. To those who have already mailed their contributions, a heartfelt "thank you." If you haven't, please answer your Christmas Seal Letter today. Fight TB with Christmas Seals!

GARDEN CLUB HAD INTERESTING MEETING

The Thanksgiving theme provided the setting for the Garden Club meeting on Monday night, Nov. 23, at the home of Mrs. W. P. Ferrell. The president opened the meeting with a poem, entitled "Thanksgiving" and Mrs. Nellie Schweizer offered the evening prayer.
Mrs. William F. Bigoney was presented a corsage, this being the occasion of her birthday.
Mrs. C. D Hill was welcomed as a new member into the club.
Yearbooks were distributed, and it was a source of pride that two of the officers of the original Garden Club organization in 1935, are still active members and were present at the meeting: Mrs. C .F. James, president, and Mrs. Lindsey Crawley, secretary. The club plans a 25th anniversary observance in January.
A Christmas "Open House" tour is being planned for Monday night, Dec. 28th. Members were urged to promote and participate in the Christmas Outdoor Decration Contest being sponsored in cooperation with Virginia Electric and Power Company.
After the business session, Mrs. S. S. Shouse gave a demonstration of two Thanksgiving arrangements. For one, she used bronze photinia foliage, orange pyracantha berries, accented with a turkey figurine accessory in a glass container. With this, she used two candleholders made by inverting two crystal goblets over small Pilgrim candles, the base of the goblet being the holder for the 10 inch orange candles. The second arrangement demonstrated was a buffet-table composition using an amethyst-toned epergne, filled with magnolia branches and artificial fruits in harmonizing colors.
Each exhibit brought set the holiday mood and showed fascinating combinations of harvest material. Among them were a horn of plenty, on a base of autumn leaves, filled with fruits, nuts, and grain a hunt display with lantern, ceramic pheasant and miniature dobs; a gobbler made from bronze pompom mums, tail feathers of dried grasses, crooked branch neck and head; a brass market cart container filled with an assortment of vegetables and driven by a woven reed horse and farmer; a wine-bottle using dried branches of sweet gum and small fruits; a tray of harvest gourds and fruits; a dried piece of lichen uniquely shaped like a turkey.
Awards were made as follows: Blue —Mrs. Beulah F. Jamerson; Red— Mrs. G. F. Langran; Gold— Mrs. Nell Young; Gold— Mrs. Nellie Schweizer.
Delicious refreshments were served by the hostesses, Mrs. Ferrell, Mrs. Beulah F. Jamerson, and Mrs. Lucille Ferrell.

ELEMENTARY SCHOOL P.-T. A. MEETING

The P.-T. A. of the Appomattox Elementary School met on Thursday night. Mrs. S. S. Shouse, president, presided.
The program featured Dr. Edgar M. Johnson, general supervisor of student teachers at Longwood College. Also present were the Longwood students who are now teaching in the school or who have completed their practice teaching. They were Mrs. Jo D. Smith, seventh grade; Jean Payton, first grade; Helen Wente, second and fifth grade; Mary Flowers, fifth grade; Helen Brown, fifth grade; Patricia Marsh, second grade; Ann Ruckman, first grade; Jean Dunagan, second grade; Barbara Simpkins, seventh grade, Jo Ann Garner, music.
Dr. Johnson, now serving as the State P.-T. A. president, extended greetings to the local organization from the Virginia Federation of Parents and Teachers. He discussed the student teacher program and outlined the preparation each student teacher has had before she enters into her profession. Also, he commented on the value a local school system can receive when student teachers are a part of their educational system.
Following the talk by Dr. Johnson, the seventh grade students, under Mrs. Jean Hesson, presented a playlet on Appomattox County which they had written, based on their five weeks' study of the county.
The group was then invited to the cafeteria for a social hour.
The halls of the school were colorful with arrangements made by the pupils as an activity of the Junior Garden Club. These arrangements were judged by Mrs. Robert Hubbard.

JUNIOR WOMANS CLUB MET ON TUESDAY

The Appomattox Junior Womans Club met on Tuesday evening, Nov. 24, at the Appomattox Elementary School cafeteria.
Mrs. Rebecca Hudson, the program chairman, presented the guest speaker, Mrs. Weldon Thompson, of Lynchburg, who gave a demonstration on Christmas Decorations for the home.
Mrs. Peggy Marshall, president, presided over the business session. Mrs. Marshall reported that a total of $316.00 was made at the recent smorgasbord dinner, which was sponsored by the Senior and the Junior Woman's Club. This will be used toward the purchase of the Maxitron.
The Ways and Means Committee Chairman, Mrs. Barbara Cawthorne announced that a Thanksgiving dance will be held on Friday evening, Nov. 27, at the American Legion Home. Guests at the meeting were members of the Senior Womans Club. Mrs. Joyce Morris was welcomed into the club as a new member.

Fragile
A young woman was mailing the old family Bible to her brother in a distant city. The postal clerk examined the heavy package and inquired whether it contained anything breakable.
"Nothing but the Ten Commandments," was her quick reply.

Orange Meringue Shells Easy Dessert

Celebrate the holidays with this luscious dessert! Snowy white meringue shells are piled high with fresh, juicy California orange chunks and covered with a shiny glaze to look fancy and festive for guests or family.
Half the work is done when you use California navel oranges . . . they're seedless, easy to peel and chockful of good eating.

Orange Meringues
1 large or 6 medium baked meringue shells, made from prepared mix
4 or 6 California oranges, peeled and cut into chunks
½ cup sugar
½ tablespoons cornstarch
¼ cup sugar
Fresh orange juice

Prepare meringue shells according to package directions. Set aside to cool.
Mix orange chunks with ½ cup sugar, cover and set aside for ½ hour. Mix cornstarch with ¼ cup sugar in saucepan. Drain syrup from sweetened orange chunks; add enough orange juice to make 1 cup. Stir into cornstarch mixture. Cook over medium heat, stirring constantly until thick and clear. Remove from heat; add orange chunks. Cool 10 minutes. Pour into baked meringue shells. Serve when glaze is set.
